- Cost is now the most common driver of moderation in the US market, "with 31% of US drinkers citing this as a reason for drinking less."
- US wine volume 2025: "wine decreasing by -6%".
- "reflected in the +1% volume increase in the super-premium price tier" (bucking the negative trend).
- "RTDs' TBA volume share has expanded from 6% in 2019 to 13% last year."
- "Rather than broadly trading down, drinkers are choosing to pay more only when a product clearly justifies its price."
