Verified key content

- US total beverage alcohol volume: -5% in 2025.
- US 2025 category volumes: beer -6%; wine -6%; spirits -4%; RTDs overall -1% (malt-based -5%, spirits-based +14%); no-alcohol beer +15%.
- Lodewijks: "Affordability concerns are forcing many consumers to cut discretionary spending, and this is putting the beverage alcohol industry under pressure... more people are drinking less often, and enjoying fewer drinks when they do. Moderation trends are also playing a role."
